EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Thomas E. Anderson on February 21, 2008.

The application has been amended as follows:

In claim 21, line 2, the word "comparator" is changed to "sampling".

In claim 57, line 3, the word "lest" is changed to "least".

In claim 61, line 1, the phrase "claim 53" is changed to "claim 60".

EXAMINER'S STATEMENTS OF REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Claims 1-40, 142-147, and 172-175 are allowable over prior art references because related reference do not disclose sampling data a third time to generate error samples. Claims 41 is allowable over prior art references because related reference do not disclose generating first and second voltage levels for sampling by subtracting a value representative of the first voltage level by a value representative of the second voltage level. Claims 42-52 are allowable over prior art references because related reference do not disclose controlling the samplers and storage circuits for the samplers using different clock signals. Claims 53-71 are allowable over prior art references because related references do not disclose comparing first and second samples to first and second thresholds, wherein in a first mode based on the comparison, outputting a most significant bit and a least significant bit, and in a second mode of operation, based on the comparison, outputting the first sample or the second sample. Claims 72-88, 106, 108, and 109 are allowable over prior art references because related references do not disclose generating first and second samples based on thresholds, wherein the samples are generated based on a mode select signal, which in one mode can generate an output with more constituent bits than in another mode.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
